

Earlier this week, as many of you may have heard, JILL O'MALIA and her family suffered at the loss of Jill's lovely daughter, Alison. Because of this tragic and sudden passing, Jill will not be able to perform today.

Our hearts and prayers go out to Alison's mom, Jill, her father, John, her sisters, Angie & Amanda, her grandmothers, Dorothy & Annabelle, her extended family, and to Alison's husband, Nick.

We are honored that Lisa Dawson has graciously stepped in to sing with us today, on Jill's behalf.

We dedicate today's performance to the life and memory of
ALISON BLEVINS RODGERS

LISA DAWSON, teaches applied voice, Opera Theater, and other courses at INDIANA WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY and has performed such roles as “Angelica” in Puccini's SUOR ANGELICA; “Rosalinda” in DIE FLEDERMAUS and was recently seen in the Mainstage Theatre production of FIDDLER ON THE ROOF. She has been the soloist with several midwest symphony orchestras, and is a recording artist with a live recording of SHAKER music to her credit. Her lecture and solo tours take her as far away as Japan, as well as within the United States. Lisa is a member of NATS (National Association of Teachers of Singing) and Mu Phi Epsilon. She is also an ordained minister and has served in congregations throughout the midwest. She and her husband, Mark, enjoy living in Anderson, Indiana with their daughters, Chelsea and Abi and son Cameron Jack.
